

WASHINGTON PROJECT FOR THE ARTS

VAULTE X-XII

VAULTE X-XII (<http://www.vaulte.co/>) is a conceptual project that takes the form of a hype fashion brand, pop-up shop, publication, and event series to examine branding's role in glamorizing the consumption of otherwise uninteresting products.

Throughout the course of the initial installation, the space will host performances, lectures, and discussions surrounding commerce, consumerism, labor, design, and fashion. VAULTE Magazine will be published in February 2019 and will serve as the project's research arm. Its 80 pages will be a compilation of thoughts and theories on design and its relationship to capitalism.
